OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.
From Madison.
EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

MADISON, February 9, 1852.
The weather holds fast yet—the nights are cold and the streets freeze still and rough. For a couple of hours after sunset it is possible to get that such and such a Madison can get up, prevail to the great disadvantage of political boss.

The Sabbath services here do not seem to be so well attended as might be expected, considering that there is a very considerable population in the town, and that the Legislature, there is a respectable third house in attendance. It may be, however, and I am inclined to think it is, that there is a great deal of lobbying done upon Sunday; the quiet of the day being peculiarly adapted for taking members by the lion, leading them into a corner, and impressing them with the importance of the Legislature, there is a great deal of lobbying done upon Sunday; the quiet of the day being peculiarly adapted for taking members by the lion, leading them into a corner, and impressing them with the importance of the Legislature.

However, I have seen many of the members at church. Mr. Lord, of the Congregational church, seems to be the popular preacher, and a fair audience generally gathers to hear him. I only saw one private opinion, that is, a man, and a fair audience generally gathers to hear him. I only saw one private opinion, that is, a man, and a fair audience generally gathers to hear him. I only saw one private opinion, that is, a man, and a fair audience generally gathers to hear him.

There is a general expectation of a vote from the Governor of the bill, which is a bill to amend the act in relation to the Rock River Union Valley Railroad Company, on the ground, as it is rumored, of its not expressing the objects of the bill. It certainly does not express these objects; and, indeed, it would require a voluminous title to express them, and, indeed, it would require a voluminous title to express them, and, indeed, it would require a voluminous title to express them.

The State has passed measures to Congress for two or three of the Rail Roads, asking for 4,000,000 acres of land. As the subject is more considered, there is a decreasing disposition to ask for such grants.

Talking about Rail Roads—shall we ever have such general Rail Road, Plank Road, Bridge, and other corporation laws, as will drive from the hall of legislation the numerous and annoying bill-dolling, dog-eating, and waste-time-making money? I do hope that the time will come, and that an extra week or two could be well spent in perfecting such laws. Their importance deserves consideration.

A resolution of the committee to report a bill providing for the publication of the laws in all the papers in the state, was voted down this morning. The subject will come up again.

The time until after 12 o'clock was occupied in discussing the proposition to order 2000 copies of the laws to be printed. Mr. B. proposed the printing of the extra number, partly on the ground of economy, and partly because there was certain language in the report calculated to reflect upon the Governor.

The Improvement Fund.
Dr. Pratt, of Brown County, who is Chairman of the School Commission, having charge of the Fox & Wisconsin Rivers Improvement, has submitted to the Assembly the following bill, and not after flattery picture of the condition of that fund accompanied by a bill for its "reform."

The joint committee to whom was referred so much of the Governor's Message in relation to the Fox and Wisconsin Rivers Improvement, have had the same under consideration, and now—

REPORT:
That they have not concluded the investigation of all the subjects referred to in said message, but they have so far investigated what has become impressed with the importance of immediate legislative action upon the subject of the sale of the lands granted for the purpose of making the improvement, and the funds arising from the sale thereof.

Our committee estimate that there is due and to become due on existing contracts about the sum of $50,000 to complete the work at Port Winnebago and dredging the Fox river immediately below Port Winnebago, and a small outlet of Lake Winnebago, making in the whole the sum of $50,000 and twenty-five thousand dollars more.

Letters from Mr. Weed—No. 7.
Paris, Jan. 5, 1852.
There is, just now, a pause in public affairs; and perhaps I might say that the curtain has fallen upon the conclusion of the 3d Act, of the great National Drama. The actors, however, doubtless, for the last few days, have been in the midst of a grand performance.
